

Panch Pokhari(Five Holy Pond)Trekking

Panch Pokhari, which consists of five holy ponds, is located at the base of Jugal Himal at an elevation of 4200 metres. It is a region of tremendous religious significance to both Hindus and Buddhists. The Panch Pokhari Trekking is a rarely visited pilgrimage site that takes travelers through magnificent Sherpa and Tamang communities, lush forests, meadows, and terraced fields. It comprises a hike to Jugal Himal, Panch Pokhari (or the five sacred ponds), Sherpa village, and Tamang village. While visiting Panch Pokhari or the five holy ponds and Jugal Himal, the traveller can see an interesting scene and breathtaking sights. It is also well-known for its pilgrimage route. The Panch Pokhari hikes are part of the Langtang area trek.
