

The Cho La Challenge: Trekking Through the Himalayan Heights

Your journey commences with a scenic mountain flight from Kathmandu to Lukla, which sets the stage for the adventure that lies ahead. After acclimatisation in Namche, you'll have the opportunity to immerse yourself in the colourful Sherpa culture and savour authentic Sherpa cuisine. As you continue your journey, you'll come across Thyangboche Monastery, the largest Buddhist gumpa in the Everest region. The breathtaking splendour of Mt. Ama Dablam (6856m) will make an indelible impression on your journey. Following the traditional route up to Lobuche, your path will diverge towards the daunting Cho La Pass, one of the highest and most arduous Himalayan passes. The pass provides a spectacular view of Mt. Everest, Lhotse, Lhotse Sar, Cho Oyu, Cholatse, and others.

Descending from Cho La Pass, you'll arrive at the serene and enchanting Gokyo Lake (5357 metres). Consider ascending Gokyo Ri (5487m) for even more spectacular views before heading to Kala Patthar. The climb to Kala Patthar takes around three hours and rewards you with breathtaking close-up views of Everest, Lhotse, Makalu, Thamserku, Ama Dablam, Baruntse, Lhotse Shar, Kantega, Kwangde, Mt. Nuptse, and a slew of other magnificent peaks. From there, your trail leads to Everest Base Camp, which requires some glacier walking and provides a breathtaking perspective of Everest's formidable south face.

Throughout your journey, you'll pass through the beautiful Sagarmatha National Park, home to endangered wildlife like Snow Leopard, Red Panda, Himalayan Black Bear, Himalayan Thar, Himalayan Monal, and Blood Pheasant.
