Equiment Lists:

Australian Camp (2,100m/6,900ft) day tour starts after breakfast in the hotel in Pokhara. It's an hour drive to Kande, after which we will be hiking for another hour. The trail brings us up to the Australian camp. The Australian Camp hike is an adventurous one, and will certainly feel as such. But afterward, you will most definitely feel like you've accomplished something. The camp itself offers amazing Jungle scenery and you will be the Annapurna Mountain range from up close. The range consists of impressive peaks such as Annapurna South, Hiunchuli, Machhapuchhre, and LamjungHimal. The trek is best for those wishing to experience Nepal's mountain scenery as well as experience the ethnic culture within a short timeframe.

The day is yours! Enjoy the view on the mountains! You can take your time as it's an absolutely private trip. After lunch in the camp, we will be returning to the hotel in Pokhara.
