Day Day 01: Kathmandu -Nagarkot

We pick you up from the Kathmandu International Airport upon your arrival and transfer you directly to Nagarkot on a rim-top. Nagarkot gives the opportunity of exploration of its village. You will stay in a most comfortable Hotel or Resort from where you will see the stunning view of the Himalayas. This is an ideal place to relax and observe typical rhythms of life in Nepal.

Day Day 02: Nagarkot - Kathmandu

We drive you back to Kathmandu showing you Bhaktapur, the ancient city of Nepal listed on the UNESCO World Heritage Site. The city was once a separate kingdom that holds on to an architectural and design spirit of a feudal state focused on artistic and religious respect. You may take time to observe the shops, potters, brass-makers, religious artisans, and spice merchants carrying out their professions as they have done here for hundreds of years. This is the best place in Nepal to shop for souvenirs. After arriving Kathmandu, you will find a diverse range of cuisine in one of the restaurants within the walking distance of your Hotel. Thamel is close to the major architectural and religious sites. The rest of the day is free to explore around on your own.
