Khopra Community Lodge Trekking is another popular short hike in the Annapurna region. It is one of the least-visited off-the-beaten-path treks, offering stunning vistas of the Annapurna, Dhaulagiri, and Nilgiri Himalayas. This trip directly supports community development initiatives.

Khopra Community Lodge Trekking offers an alternative to the famed Ghorepani-Poonhill climb in the Annapurna region. It is an off-the-beaten-path; remote trek with stunning vistas of the Annapurna, Dhaulagiri, and Nilgiri Himalayas, plus the community-managed trekking trails, and ethnic Magar culture.

The Khopra Danda Trek has three different trekking routes depending on where you start.

The first alternative is to hike to Ghandruk from Nayapool and then to Khopra via Tadapani, which is the shortest path.

The second alternative is to begin trekking from Beni (Galeshor), which is a 6-hour drive from Pokhara. The trek passes through the villages of Banskarka and Nangi before arriving to Mohare Danda (3660m), which provides an excellent view of the Annapurna and Dhaulagiri massifs.

The final option is to trek from Nayapool stopping over in the touristic villages of Ghorepani, Swanta and Upper Chistibang to finally reach Khopra.

The Khopra Ridge (3640m) offers incredible panoramas of Dhaulagiri (8167m), Annapurna (8091m), Machhapuchhare (6993m), Nilgiri South (6839m), and Hiuchuli (6441m). From here, you'll descend to Tatopani, a hot spring where you can relax and relieve any ache. The next day, you'll leave for Pokhara via Nayapul.

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Initiative:

Trekkers can enjoy community development programmes in the area, including yak rearing and cross-breeding, cheese production, Nepali Lokta paper, plum jam, and handmade wool items, as part of the corporate social responsibility initiative. Adventure Thirdpole Treks is committed to supporting these community programmes by allocating a portion of its trekking revenue through our Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) and Sustainable Tourism initiatives. We recommend all of our clients to choose Khopra Danda Trek.

Day 4: Drive from Pokhara - Nayapool and trek to Ghandruk (2012m, 5-6 hrs) O/N Local Lodge (BLD)

Morning drive for one and a half hour to Nayapool (1011m), our starting point for trekking. The trail steadily progresses along Modi Khola to Birethanti then gradually passes through paddy fields crisscrossed by road. Up ahead the muddy trail snakes through terraced hills via Sauli bazaar, a perfect lunch spot. Now the trek goes towards North up the Modi valley on an uphill journey until you reach Ghandruk. Settled by ethnic Gurung communities, the village is instantly recognized by slated roof houses, rhododendron trees on the backdrop of a score of majestic mountains including Annapurna South, Machhapuchhare and Hiunchuli, clearly visible in the morning.

Day 5: Trek from Ghandruk - Tadapani (2630m, 3-4 hours) O/N Local Lodge (BLD)

It will take at least 3-4 hours of a steady trek to reach Tadapani from Ghandruk. The trail passes through quiet rhododendron forest that reverberates with occasional singing and chirping of birds. The final section of this trek runs through the village of Bherikharka on a slightly uphill leg to Tadapani.

Day 6: Tadapani - Dobato (3426m) - Bayali Kharka (3492m) 6-7 hours - O/N Local Lodge (BLD)

The trail from Tadapani to Dobato has fewer trekkers, equally mesmerizing panorama of Dhaulagiri range including Kali Gandaki valley. There are no settlements or teahouses along the trail that inclines gradually. By late afternoon you will have reached Bayali

Kharka, a seasonal yak pasture. The pasture is a good viewpoint to watch spectacular peaks of Dhaulagiri range, as well as the sprawling valley of Kali Gandaki and Ghorepani.

Optional Hike to Mulde Peak:

Once you reach Dobato, you will see a trail that diverts west to Mulde Peak (3637m). Interested trekkers who would like to see more of wonderful Himalayan peaks can take a side trip to reach Mulde peak (3637m). It will take 30 min to reach the Mulde Peak and another 30 min to climb down. Mulde Peak offers a clear view of over two dozen mountain peaks including Annapurna, Dhaulagiri, Nilgiri, Lamjung Himal etc along with an equally breathtaking view of Phewa lake in Pokhara Valley.

Day 7: Bayali Kharka - Upper Chistibang (2990m, 3-4 hrs) - Khopra Danda / Kopra Ridge (3660m, 4-5 hrs) O/N Local Lodge (BLD)

The first section of the trail from Bayali Kharka to Upper Chistibang descends continuously passing through the thick wooded area. The trail offers picturesque views of green hills and far away villages with a backdrop of beautiful snowcapped Himalayan peaks. At Upper Chistibang, originally called Dhankharka, you will stop for lunch to be served at a community lodge.

After leaving Upper Chistibang, the trail begins to climb steadily through alpine meadows to reach the isolated yak pasture known as Khopra Danda. Located above tree-line, Khopra Ridge is an excellent viewpoint and hosts Khopra Danda Community Lodge. You can go for a short walk down to lower part of Khopra which offers a breathtakingly close-up panorama of Mt Dhaulagiri, Nilgiri, Fang, and Annapurna South as well as the world's deepest gorge of Kali Gandaki down below.

Day 8: Day hiking to Khayer Lake (4620m, 10~11 hrs) O/N Community Lodge (BLD) - Tough adventure and difficult day

Get up early and have a warm breakfast. Since there are no teahouses along the way and around Khayer Lake, you will have to carry along a lunch pack. The trek immediately begins to ascend crossing nearby cliffs with stunning views of Himalayan mountains. The final part of the trek is particularly very steep until you reach Khayer lake. Dedicated to Goddess Barahini, the lake is ensconced deep into a hill just below the summit of Annapurna South. The lake is spread in an area of approximately 2 sq.km.

Note: Those trekkers who still have thirst for more adventure, we recommend this hike as an optional trip. This 10-11 hrs hike to Khayer Lake takes you to a relatively higher altitude with the added opportunity to explore holy lakes and glaciers in the mouth of Annapurna South. The total distance covered to Khayer Lake and back is approximately 25km. And for those who are not ready for this adventure can shorten their itinerary by dropping down to Paudwar.

Day 9: Khopra Danda - Paudwar (2000m, 4-5 hrs) O/N Local Lodge / home stay (BLD)

From Khopra Danda, the trek is entirely downhill all the way to Paudwar. Paudwar is a densely settled Magar village that also has a community operated cheese factory and local honey facility. You will have plenty of time to take a village tour, taste the cheese and honey and interact with locals. You can choose either a homestay or local lodge for overnight (subject to availability).

Day 10: Paudwar - Tatopani (1185m, 4-5 hrs) O/N Local Lodge (BLD)
