

Seti Khola(River) Rafting

The Seti River that is famous for its incredible surrounding during the year is categorized as Mild River, which would be a great experience for families, nature lovers & bird watchers, This beautiful Himalayan river passes through stunning jungle scenery, green hills, and valleys. The gentle river follows from the Himalayan peaks having plenty of lots of small and straightforward rapids. Relatively small volume, blue and warm water makes Seti perfect rafting for beginners, intermediate and family. The luxuriant vegetation visible along the river is a remnant of the vast forested area, which once covered the middle hills of Nepal. This area is inhabited by Magar who is renowned for generations of service with the Gurkha forces. Saranghat is a colorful middle hill village where you will have first night's camp on a spacious beach below the village.
